

IT'S GETTING HOT!

— MELTING

— SCORCHING

— SIZZLING

— BOILING

— BURNING

Unit 7 Places to go

LESSON 3 It's really hot today

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

In this lesson, you will learn to describe the weather of a place.

51Talk
无忧英语

1 Warm-up

What's the weather like today?

warm

hot

dry

cold

rainy

2 New words and expressions

Matching game

1.

I won't say anything

2.

3.

4.

5.

hot [hɒt]

dry [draɪ]

fan [fæn]

later ['leɪtə(r)] on

I won't say anything

Let's go through the sentences. Pay attention to the words in red.

- Yesterday was 39°C — the hottest day in ten years.
- The land in this area is very dry.
- They have a small fan on their office desk.
- Mike is hoping to have a rest later on today.
- Fine. If you really want to take a risk, I won't say anything.

3 Speaking naturally

1. Conversation and activity

(Grace is an overseas student in Canberra. She received a call from her friend Nancy.)

Nancy: Hi, Grace, this is Nancy. How is everything in Canberra?

Grace: Hi, Nancy. Canberra is so hot and dry.

I can't wait till winter.

Nancy: Did you take your small fan with you?

Grace: No, it's broken.

Nancy: Well, the weather report says Canberra is going to get even hotter later on.

Grace: Really? This can't be good news.

I am starting to miss our hometown.

Nancy: Oh, no. You won't like that. It's very cold here.

Grace: OK. I won't say anything.

What can you say when talking about weather?

- ... is so hot (dry).
- I can't wait till winter/summer/...
- The weather report says it's going to ... later on.

3 Speaking naturally

2. Conversation and comprehension

Nancy: Hi, Grace, this is Nancy. How is everything in Canberra?

Grace: Hi, Nancy. Canberra is so hot and dry.

I can't wait till winter.

Nancy: Did you take your small fan with you?

Grace: No, it's broken.

Nancy: Well, the weather report says Canberra is going to get even hotter later on.

Grace: Really? This can't be good news.
I am starting to miss our hometown.

Nancy: Oh, no. You won't like that. It's very cold here.

Grace: OK. I won't say anything.

Answer the questions:

1. What's the weather like in Canberra?

It's ...

2. How is the weather back in their hometown?

It is ...

3 Speaking naturally

3. Practice

Nancy: Hi, Grace, this is Nancy. How is everything in Canberra?

Grace: Hi, Nancy. Canberra is so hot and dry . I can't wait till winter.

Nancy: Did you take your small with you?

Grace: No, it's broken.

Nancy: Well, the weather report says Canberra is going to get even hotter .

Grace: Really? This can't be good news.
I am starting to miss our hometown.

Nancy: Oh, no. You won't like that. It's very cold here.

Grace: OK. .

4 Task

Speak out

Teacher

Hi, ... (student's name) How is the weather like this season in your hometown?

It's ...

You

Teacher

...

...

You

Teacher

...

...

You

Word tips

- hot/cold/damp/dry
- later on
- can't wait
- go swimming/skiing/hiking
- be full of fun

5 Summary

What did you learn in this lesson?

Words and phrases:

Sentences:

Let's check the next page!

5 Summary

You have learned the following vocabulary and sentence pattern to describe the weather of a place.

Words and phrases:

hot

dry

fan

later on

I won't say anything

Sentence pattern:

I can't wait till ...

(Make a sentence)

