

Unit 7 Places to go
LESSON 6 Seattle is a friendly city

LEARNING OBJECTIVE
In this lesson, you will learn to talk to the local people on your vacation.

1 Warm-up

Do you like talking to the local people on your vacation? What do you think of them?

nice/friendly/helpful/warm-hearted

cold/unfriendly

2 New words and expressions

Matching game

1.

friendly

2.

3.

4.

5.

art museum [mju: 'zi: əm]

the other ['ʌðə(r)] way

avenue ['ævənju:]

tourist ['tʊ(ə)rɪst]

friendly ['frendli]

Let's go through the sentences. Pay attention to the words in red.

- a. The Philadelphia Art Museum is a very famous art museum in the world.
- b. This way is wrong. I should take the other way.
- c. Walk along Second Avenue and you can see it on the right.
- d. Like most of the tourists would do, Jackson went to Maldives to have a good time.
- e. Most of the dogs are very friendly to children.

3 Speaking naturally

1. Conversation and activity

(Liz is lost. She asks Simon for directions.)

Liz: Excuse me. I'm lost. Is this the way to the Seattle Art Museum?

Simon: No, it is the other way.

You should go back to University Avenue.

Liz: University Avenue? Where is that?

Simon: You're not from around here, are you?

Liz: No, I'm just a tourist. It's my first time in Seattle.

Simon: Do you have a map with you?

Liz: Sorry, I left it in my hotel today.

Simon: Don't worry. I can draw you one.

Liz: You're so kind. Thanks for your help.

Seattle is a friendly city, isn't it?

Practice the key sentences:

Seattle is a friendly city,
isn't it?

It is a ... day, ...?

The museum is ... from here, ...?

3 Speaking naturally

2. Conversation and comprehension

Liz: Excuse me. I'm lost. Is this the way to the Seattle Art Museum?

Simon: No, it is the other way.
You should go back to University Avenue.

Liz: University Avenue? Where is that?

Simon: You're not from around here, are you?

Liz: No, I'm just a tourist. It's my first time in Seattle.

Simon: Do you have a map with you?

Liz: Sorry, I left it in my hotel today.

Simon: Don't worry. I can draw you one.

Liz: You're so kind. Thanks for your help.

Seattle is a friendly city, isn't it?

Answer the questions:

1. Where does Liz want to go?

She wants to go to the ...

2. How does Simon help her?

He ...

3 Speaking naturally

3. Practice

Liz: Excuse me. I'm lost. Is this the way to the Seattle Art Museum?

Simon: No, it is . You should go back to University .

Liz: University Avenue? Where is that?

Simon: You're not from around here, are you?

Liz: No, I'm just a . It's my first time in Seattle.

Simon: Do you have a map with you?

Liz: Sorry, I left it in my hotel today.

Simon: Don't worry. I can draw you one.

Liz: You're so kind. Thanks for your help. Seattle is a city, isn't it?

4 Task

Speak out

Teacher

Hi, ... (student's name) Did you have any trouble when you were traveling?

Yes, ...

You

Teacher

...

...

You

Teacher

...

...

You

Word tips

- get lost
- ask for directions
- local people
- draw me a map/
show me the way
- friendly/warm-hearted

5 Summary

What did you learn in this lesson?

Words and phrases:

Sentences:

Let's check the next page!

5 Summary

You have learned the following vocabulary and sentence pattern to talk to the local people on your vacation.

Words and phrases:

avenue

tourist

friendly

art museum

the other way

Sentence pattern:

... is a friendly city, isn't it?

(Make a sentence)

